Dear LinkedIn Legal Team,

How are you?

After reviewing the Court Procedures and Forms, Order For Pretrial Conference, and other documentation, there is a common theme of "Good Faith" between Plaintiff and Defendant on the generation several legal artifacts.

As a token of this "Good Faith" theme, I will extend a peace offering, which consists of the same relief as stated in the complaint. The exception is that instead of $250,000,000. I will reduce the by 50% of the relief award due to the fact that amount was intended to attract a US Constitutional Lawyer and/or US Law Firm to help administer the paperwork, advice on motions, simplify the legal navigation, and gain renown for defending Free Speech of an American in US Soil in a Public Forum. I will assume that they are terrified of the Chinese Communist Party and they value their lives more than defending the Legal Principle of Free Speech in a Free Society and $125,000,000 award share. Thus, as a token of "Good Faith", I will reduce their amount of the award intended for such advanced legal counsel if I do not have to perform their legal work as a pro se Plaintiff. If I do have to perform the work of US Constitutional Lawyer by going to Legal Help Centers on a daily basis, I will do that and charge LinkedIn that full award amount.

So, how about it? This is a token of "Good Faith". Please update your User Agreement to reflect President Franklin D. Roosevelt's Free Speech directive, send me the $125,000,000, and return my LinkedIn account. I liked my 7,000 Connections. Many are very smart influential US civilian leaders, US military leaders, and US political leaders. As a favor, you can tell Bill Gates and Ryan Roslansky to remember that we are Americans with Free Speech, and that I do admire their skills as business leaders. They need and can raise the standard of Free Speech, not lower any ethical standard for the Chinese Communist Party. Chinese Communist Party is responsible for many crimes against humanity. That means more than pieces of paper printed by machines in a bank. You cannot print awesome Americans with Free Speech from a machine. No nation ever bought their freedom. They had to fight for it, whether through peaceful means or forceful means. I prefer peaceful means, because I am not the Chinese Communist Party. I am US War Veteran who fought for our Freedoms that you are denying me on behalf of the Chinese Communist Party. That why I had to file a complaint and I am also extending this "Good Faith" settlement between us. I hope I can touch your hearts, your reasoning, and patriotism to raise the standards of Free Speech and Freedom in US soil.

God bless America.

POSTAL EXPERIENCE

Void Guarantee: If the mailer submits an item at a designated USPS® Priority Mail Express® location on or before the specified deposit time, the Postal Service will deliver or attempt to deliver the item to the addressee or agent before the applicable delivery date and time. Mailer may request the signature of the addressee upon delivery of the item by checking the "signature" box at the time of mailing. If the Postal Service does not deliver or attempt delivery by the specified time and the mailer files a valid claim for a refund, the Postal Service will refund the postage, unless an exception applies. See Mailing Standards of the United States Postal Service, Domestic Mail Manual (DMM®) 604.9.5.5 which is available at pe.usps.com.

Note: The Postal Service does not offer money-back guarantee for military or DPO shipments delayed due to customs inspections or the item was destined for an APO/FPO/DPO that was closed on the intended day of delivery or the delay was caused by one of the situations in DMM 604.9.5.5. Consult USPS.com® or your local Post Office for information on delivery commitments and Priority Mail Express Military Service (PMEIS). For details, see DMM 703.2.6, which is available at pe.usps.com.

When a mailer submits a Priority Mail Express item requiring a signature and the Postal Service cannot deliver the item on the first attempt, the Postal Service leaves a notice for the addressee. If the addressee does not claim the item within 5 calendar days, the Postal Service returns the item to the sender at no additional charge.

Insurance coverage: The Postal Service provides insurance only in accordance with postal regulations in the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com. The DMM sets forth the specific types of losses that are covered, the limitations on coverage, terms of insurance, conditions of payment, and adjudication procedures. Certain items are not insurable. The DMM consists of federal regulations, and USPS personnel are not authorized to change or waive these regulations or grant exceptions. A mailer who requires information on Priority Mail Express insurance may contact the Postal Service before submitting an item. Limitations prescribed in the DMM provide, in part, that:

1. Insurance coverage extends to the actual value of the contents at the time of mailing or the cost of repairs, not to exceed the insured limit for the item.
2. The Postal Service insures the contents of Priority Mail Express "merchandise" items (with "merchandise" defined by postal regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents. The Postal Service includes coverage up to $100 per mailpiece at no additional charge. Additional merchandise insurance up to $5,000 per mailpiece may be available for purchase. Additional insurance for Priority Mail Express items is not available unless a signature is required.

3. The Postal Service insures "nonnegotiable documents" (as defined by postal indemnity regulations) against loss, damage, or missing contents up to $100 per mailpiece for document reconstruction, subject to additional limitations for multiple pieces lost or damaged in a single catastrophic occurrence. Document reconstruction insurance provides reimbursement for the reasonable costs incurred in reconstructing duplicates of nonnegotiable documents mailed. The Document reconstruction insurance coverage above $100 per mailpiece is not available. The mailer should not attempt to purchase additional document insurance, because additional document insurance is void.
4. The Postal Service insures "negotiable items" (defined by postal regulations as items that can be converted to cash without forgery), currency, or bullion up to a maximum of $5 per mailpiece.
5. The Postal Service does not provide coverage for consequential losses due to loss, damage, or delay of Priority Mail Express items or for concealed damage, spoilage of perishable items, and articles improperly packaged or too fragile to withstand normal handling in the mail. Coverage, terms, and limitations are subject to change. For additional limitations and terms of coverage, consult the DMM, which is available at pe.usps.com.

Indemnity Claims (Loss, Damaged or Missing Contents): Either the mailer or the addressee may file an indemnity claim for loss, damaged or missing contents. The claimant may submit the claim online at usps.com, or by mail; for more information see Publication 122, Domestic Claims, Customer Reference Guide. The timelines for claims are as follows: claims for loss – no sooner than 7 days but no later than 60 days after the date of mailing; claims for damage or missing contents – immediately but no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Retain the original USPS retail receipt or electronic receipt for claims purposes. For claims involving damage or missing contents, also retain the article, container, and packaging for Postal Service inspection when requested.

Refund of Postage and Fees (Service Performance): If delivery of a Priority Mail Express (PME) item does not meet the scheduled delivery commitment(s), online and commercial customers may submit a refund request by visiting USPS.com. Retail customers may submit a refund request either online at USPS.com or at retail locations. Refund requests for postage must be submitted no later than 30 days from the date of mailing. Extra Services fees refund requests must be submitted no later than 60 days from the date of mailing. Each tracking number can only be submitted once for all applicable submissions. Refund requests for PME or PME with Extra Services must be combined into a single submission.

Thank you for choosing Priority Mail Express service.
